

Frequently asked questions:

How to register for taking the examination at the University?

- In Student Service you can get the examination application form (Serbian/Bosnian: prijava za polaganje ispita).
- Fill in the application
- Hand in the form.
- Do not forget to take your student ID with you at the day of the exam.

How can I get a certificate of attendance and transcript of records?

When your exchange period at the University of Novi Pazar is getting to an end, you should visit Office for International Relation, there you should ask for the certificate of attendance or transcript of records.

Which courses can I take?

As far as we are concerned, you can take any of the courses disregarding the level or department, just please make sure that the course is taught in the semester of your mobility. Also, make sure your home university agrees with your selection of the courses.

How to choose the courses?

You should choose the courses during the first week of your stay. Please contact the academic coordinator who can provide you with help and academic guidance. Make sure to know what department the course is taught on and who the teacher is. Once you agree with the academic coordinator, you can contact the teacher of the course and start attending the classes.

I would like to take the Serbian/Bosnian language course, who should I contact?

Please contact the Office for International Relation for all the information.

Can I take some other language courses?

Please contact the Office for International Relation for all the information.

When does the semester start? When are the holidays?

Please see the academic calendar. There will be a Welcome Day organised for you at the beginning of the semester. You will be invited by an email and kindly asked to confirm your attendance.

How can I find the accommodation?

The students who need assistance with finding the accommodation should contact the International Relations Officer, iro@uninp.edu.rs.

Are there any events at the University I could attend?

Yes. You can find the information about the events at the University website www.uninp.edu.rs. Or you can visit the official Facebook page.
